Alexandria Gazette for 1882

THE ONLY DAILY PAPER PUBLISHED IN NORTHERN VIRGINIA-ONE OF THE BEST ADVERTISING ME-DIUMS IN THE STATE.

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE and VIE-GINIA ADVESTIBER, begun in 1700, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia.

Already read by three generations, it proposes to continue its useful life, and now enters upon another (the eighty-third) volume, determined to be the newspaper of the ere in Virginia.

The Gazatte will put forth its utmost endeaver to continue a model newspaper, and its success during this entire century in extering to the wants and meeting the wishes of the people. guarantees that with this paper promise means performance.

With the coming year all the Improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as giperiance justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to reader faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid or ticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Router's European agency, being, with but few exceptions, the only paper between Bultimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountsias of the world's news.

Its contiguity to Washington gives the Gaz-tte an early precedenus over all the journals of the Siste in intelligence of the operations of the General Government. The proceedings of Congress will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of especial interest-in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all titls of local interest will be given.

From the State Capital it will rately early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICH-MOND PEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEX-ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of past years has loft little to improve, but get greater effort will be made to incure absolute perfection in these departments.

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is tre anared at many shousand hearthstones of Virginia. bor fixed and Dating Stamps at shortest notice;

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assidutously | For rule at chronic ed.

The past of the Gazatle is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experionce of journalism.

In the progress of the growth and enterprises. of cur city a Telephone Exchange has been established greatly to the benefit of the business community and with which the Gazette was early connected thereby putting the office in immediate communication with all parts of the city and faciliting the collection of news, &c.

Especial attention will be devoted to present the saw well from original sources of information will a reheared the first saw will from original sources of information in the first saw will from original sources of information in the first saw will first saw with the same than the same that the same than the same than the same than the same than the ing, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the nows of Virginia.

Concisely and completely it will give the news of the world.

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazatte will be filled with the earliest and most easet commercial news, edited with such painslaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they may depend upon the Ganatte.

Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted.

The continual favors of there who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

A Millionaire's Dreary Buria!

Oa Taesday, the 3rd instant, the remains of the late John Bareside were brought up to this place from the White Sulphur Springe, where they have temperarily rested since his death, some months eg), and deposited in their last resting place in the cemetery near Union This was done by direction of Colonel Oliver Bairne, and the transmission of the remains was under the personal supervision of Mr. John Given, the manager of the Sweet Springs. The grave of the dead millioanire is in the lot just adjucing the tomb of the late Andrew Beirne, and we understand a very handsome monument will be erected to his memory. - Union (Monroe) Watchman. Commenting editorially on the above the

Watchman says:

"S litom is the hellowness and vanity of riches more forcibly exemplified than in the scene witnessed here on l'uesday, and mettioned is our local columns-the interment of the remains of the great Louisiana millionaire, John Burn ide. A man whose wealth is estimated at $6 000 000 in life whose favor was courted and sought after and at whose beck and ply to GEO. H. HAKLOW, call hundreds came and went, after living to a ripe old age in a style of princely splender, is in death borne back to the scenes of his youth, and is buried in the commerced life, without one ingle mourner to follow his bier to the tomb. A blesk winter day, and the wagon bearing the mortal remains of one whose name is known in every portion of the civiliz d world toiled slowly along up the steep ascent to where the cametery lies, with not one serrowing friend to shed a tear or breathe a sigh for the departed. Naturally one asks where are those relatives who have spring up, as it were out of the, earth, rince the rich man's dosth? Have they no affection for one with whom they are so anxious to claim kin? Ab, they are too buy with their offers to establish their relationship, too busy in their regamble for his property, to mortal remaics of one whose name is known in too busy in their to:amble for his property, to pay the very least tribute which sould be d:manded to their kineman's memory. The snow lies deep cver John Barnside's grave and covers gree fully with a soft mentle the rough mound which no kind hand has yet smoothed."

EXECUTION.—Thadden: Baber, formerly of his state, was executed in St. Linis on Friday ast for murlerng his paramour. A great deal this state, was executed in St. Louis on Friday of interest centroed in the post-mortem exami ostion of Baber. He belonged to an old Virginia fami'y of much respectability, and his friends asserted to the last mement that he was issane. His mother and sister made frantic ap pea's to the Governor, and represented that when a boy he had fallen from a wall; that his ku I was tr.kin and had been tripinned with a place of seed. This "crepanning" story was not doubted until the doctors got to work on Biber's head with a koife. It was discovered that the skull had never been broken, that there had never been any trepanning, and that the story was a plot of the family to save Baber from the gallows. Baber was thirty years old. Baber's cime was the murder of his former mistress, Lena Schuendler, and ber mother, Frederika Somuendler, on the night of Aug. 14, 1879, at No. 821 South Fourth screet. On the night in question Baber become intoxicated, and it appears that while is that condition he mede up his mind to kill the elder woman, with whem he often querrelled and by whom he had been forbidden the house. Going to their garriers be found the wemen at home. Baber drew his revolver, and taking good sim sent a bullet through the brain of the older woman. She was sitting in a chair at the time, and his sim proyed so good that she never meved after the bullet struck her, except to fall back in her chair dead. The sound of the revolver shot awakened Lizze's son, aged six vears, of whom Baber was the father, and, umping out of bed, he ran into the hallway in time to see Baber fire a shot at his mother. As with his first sho; the aim of the assassio was good, and the bullet hit the young woman in a fatal spot. She sank to the floor, L zz'e survived two days, but her mother died imme-

No DANCING FOR ZION -It is reported that a Methodist parson recently declined the proceeds of a ball which were offered as a corr.bu'ion toward the extirguishment of the church debt, on the ground that his otu ch disapproves of dancing. Such moral elevation is so rare in church circles that multitudes of sincers will uncharitably wonder whether the smount offered was large enough to be accepted | cated, for payment. through a stretch of churchly conscience. Churches have accepted the proceeds of so many stock jubbing operations, gambling hells. distillery dividends, political deals and railroad steals that the special Scriptural prohibitions as to money being brought into the santuary are entirely distanced .- N.
